Circular Memo.No.1634052-B/186/A1/HRM.VII/2022, dated: 26.7.2022

Sub: Public Services – Surplus Staff – Re-deployment of erstwhile Village Revenue Officers in various Government Departments – Reg.

Ref: G.O.Ms.No.121, Finance (HRM.VII) Department, dated: 23.7.2022.

& & &

The attention of all the District Collectors is invited to the orders issued in the G.O. cited above. The Department-wise posts identified for re-deployment of VROs in their district, are shown in the Annexure.

2. The number of existing vacancies of posts identified and approved for re-deployment in each department in the district, is indicated in the Annexure to the Circular. These posts are in the district/division/mandal/sub-mandal level offices of the department.

3. The allotment to Departments shall be done by way of drawal of lots in a transparent manner in the presence of senior officers, duly video graphing the entire process. The Collector shall issue individual orders of re-deployment in the format enclosed, showing the department to which allotted or the district to which allotted and the exercise shall be completed immediately. Once the department is allotted the district head will give posting orders in the existing vacancies.

4. In such of the districts where the working strength of the VROs is more than the number of posts identified in the district, the excess number of VROs shall be adjusted in the neighboring districts as shown in the Annexure. The list of such excess VROs shall be sent to the District Collector/s concerned, who will issue department allocation.
